

AN ABSTRACT NONLINEAR THEOREM AND TWO APPLICATIONS

PATRICK MCKENNA *

In this talk, I will present a abstract multiplicity theorem that applies in surprising generality to various, semilinear problems, including non-local types involving fractional exponents of the Laplacian. various open problems will also be mentioned. The main tools will be orthogonal projections and and contraction mapping theorem.

*Department of Mathematics, University of Connecticut, email: mckenna@math.uconn.edu